OPERATIONS AND FUTURE PLANS

The operations for the year under review show a loss (Before Tax) of Rs.0.75 lacs.

The Company has not been active for the past eleven years due to a severe financial crisis, for the past six years the Company was in the process of gradually liquidating all debts with various Banks and Financial institutions. Your Directors are glad to report that during the year under review the Company has closed all the loans and is a debt free company from this year. The Directors feel that having addressed the issue of clearing the debts, it is an appropriate time to start planning for the future. It is sincere intention of the Directors to bring value to the Shareholders. But the current economic environment being what it is we will have to choose our path with care and caution.

Your Directors are pleased to report that a study for the revival of the Logistics Business is already commissioned and is underway. The assignment has been entrusted to a reputed Logistics organization who will examine the feasibility including the strategy. It is expected that the launch could be sometime in April 2014.

Your Directors are also looking and examining other business options including acquisition of running businesses as well as other good viable opportunities where some value and synergies can be perceived. It is our Objective that we commence activities in Logistics and cargo and consolidate the business activities. We would like to see that Company is en route to generating a healthy top line and bottom line from April 2014 onwards.

DIVIDEND:

Since the Company could not generate any profits, management does not propose any dividend for the year 2013.

DIRECTORS

Mr. Nisar Khatib retires at the ensuing Annual General Meeting, and being eligible offers himself for reappointment.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY STATEMENT

Your Directors State:

- i) that in the preparation of the annual accounts, the applicable accounting standards had been followed along with proper explanations relating to material departure;
- ii) that the Directors had selected such accounting policies and applied them consistently and made judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent, so as to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company at the end of the financial year and the loss of the Company for the period;

Management Discussion And Analysis

Overall review, industry Structure and Developments:

It is documented that the Tertiary Service sector is growing rapidly in our country and there is a great demand for the concept of Just In time Inventory to avoid high inventory carrying cost and the concept has thrown up great opportunities to the Logistics and cargo sector.

Opportunities and Threat

While the sector offers immense opportunities to your company which your company will be able to effectively handle since your company has a track record of pioneering various Logistics operations in the country ,the threat perception is the growing number of players in the market .

Segment wise Performance

Your company will at the first instance offer Logistics consultancy to huge projects and Logistics companies and the same being neither labour nor capital intensive high profitability is assured and this will form 95% of the activity of the company ..

Out Look

As the Logistics Industry is growing leaps and bounds the overall out look for the future years for the Company and the Industry as a whole is bright and promising .

Internal control System

For the present moment since the operations are at minimum no elaborate Internal control systems are applied but alongside growth the same could be developed and deployed.

Human relations

Your company has an excellent track record of Human Relations however for the present in view of low activity levels the same is not tested .

Financial performance with respect to operational performance

(Amount in Rs._Lacs_)

Particulars	31-03-2013	31-03-2012
Total Income	7.62	3.90
Depreciation	0.00	0.00
Profit (Loss) before Tax	(0.75)	(11.23)
Provision for Tax - FBT	0.00	0.00
Profit (loss) after Tax	(0.75)	(11.43)

Balance Brought forward	(1440.00)	(1428.77)
Balance carried to Balance Sheet	(1440.75)	(1440.20)

Caution:

Inspite of Having become debt free the company is not in a position to undertake capital intensive projects immediately and hence the growth of business in volumes may be likely to be modest and the company would adopt a very cautious approach in attaining its business growth .

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF CORPORATE COURIER AND CARGO LIMITED

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of CORPORATE COURIER AND CARGO LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2013, the Statement of Profit and Loss and the Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended and a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards referred to in section 211(3C) of the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act"). This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with the ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers the internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India :

- i in the case of Balance Sheet of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2013;
- ii in the case of Statement of Profit and Loss, of the loss for the year ended on that date and
- iii in the case of Cash Flow Statement, of the cash flows of the Company for the year ended on that date.

- 1 Significant accounting policies (to the extent applicable)
The Financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the requirement of Section 209(3)(b) of the Companies Act, 1956.
- a Method of accounting
These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Indian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis except where specified otherwise. GAAP comprises accounting standards notified by the Central Government of India u/s 211(3C) of Companies Act, 1956 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 to the extent applicable. Accounting policies not specifically referred to otherwise, are consistent and in consonance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Company has prepared these financial statements as per the format prescribed by Revised Schedule VI to Companies Act, 1956 (the Schedule) issued by Ministry of Corporate Affairs. Previous periods figures have been recast/restated to confirm to the classification required by Revised Schedule VI.
- b Revenue recognition -
The Company recognises its revenue and expenses on accrual basis.
- c Income taxes
Income tax expenses comprises of current tax computed in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961 and deferred tax charge or credit. Current tax provision is made based on the tax liability computed after considering tax allowances and exemptions, in accordance with the Income Tax Act, 1961.
Deferred tax charge or credit and the corresponding deferred tax liability or asset is recognized for timing differences between the profits/losses offered for income taxes and the profits/losses as per the financial statements. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measure using tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or subsequently enacted at the balance sheet date
Deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is reasonable certainty of realization of such assets in future. However, where there is unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward loss under taxation laws, deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is virtual certainty of realization of such assets. Deferred tax assets/liabilities are reviewed as at each Balance sheet date and written down/up to reflect the amount that is reasonably/virtually certain (as the case may be) to be realized.
- d Earning per share:
Basic earning per share is calculated by dividing the net profit for the year attributable to the equity shareholders by the weighted average of the number of equity shares outstanding during the year.
- e Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets
Provisions involving substantial degree of estimation in measurement are recognized when there is a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that there will be an outflow of resources. Contingent liabilities, if any, are not recognized but disclosed by way of notes to accounts. Contingent assets are neither recognized nor disclosed in the financial statements.
